What & Why?

The aim of the site

Needs analysis

Need of the target group

The Teach with Erasmus+ project identified that academic staff of a European HEI has several obstacles when participating in a teaching or training mobility programme.

These obstacles:

- Lack of reliable information about teaching and training mobility opportunities for academic staff
- Only a few networking opportunity, mostly individual approaches
- Lacks proper quality assurance
- Less accessible for junior staff
- Lacking transparency when selecting incoming academic staff

Target group

- academic staff of HEI
- administrative staff of different departments of HEI with an aim to find guest lectures or offer mobility opportunities for international academic staff,
- Universities or any HEI who would like to measure the quality of their teaching mobility programme.

Aim

of the site I.

Offer solutions to the difficulties of teaching mobility

- create a site (Marketplace, Hub, etc.) where teaching staff can meet and exchange (using available technologies)
- find/offer opportunities for teaching or training mobility
- facilitate, encourage, and promote teachers' mobility (TM) across Europe
- Invite those who offer their expertise on the site and/or apply for a training/mobility advertised for teachers on the site of the site II.

- to ensure quality of the mobility and ease administrative procedures or professional struggles within the staff mobility
- not only marketplace but
 - several tools (eg. Research and Quality & Impact tool, Methodology database)
 - first hand information (on Erasmus+ staff mobility for teaching&training)
